AGONIZING GROANS.

All Caused by the Cry of Injured Workmen.

AN ENGINE SUDDENLY EXPLODES

Eleven People Injured, Three of Them Probably Fatally—An Overload of a Boiler in a Machine Shop at St. Paul. A List of the Injured People.

ST. PAUL, Oct. 15.—Shortly before 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon a terrible explosion rent the air at the shops of the Chicago, St. Paul and Kansas City Railway company at South Park. As soon as the smoke and noise had subsided agonizing groans were heard in the debris of the wreck, which told too plainly that several human beings were victims of the casualty.

The employees in the shops have been repairing an old engine, and having completed the work, decided to test the boiler. Doubtless too much steam was put on, for the boiler exploded with terrible velocity and eleven persons were injured three of them probably fatally. Five of the victims were terribly mutilated, and were picked up unconscious. The others were quite badly injured and taken to their homes. The three who are fatally injured were conveyed by a special train to the Union depot and taken to St. Joseph hospital.

L. F. Newton, a clerk in the company's office, who was an eye-witness of the accident, said: "The engine had just been brought out of the shops, Hoelter May being in charge. Suddenly the explosion occurred, and I saw May shoot up in the air and come down behind some freight cars fifty feet away. Clowry, who was standing near, was thrown two car lengths away. The explosion tore the fire-box out, and ripped open the right side of the boiler. The boiler head was blown one hundred feet away and through the machine shop door."

Following is a list of the injured: John J. Clowry, John May, Martin McGrill, William Davidson, David Zield, James Dickson, James Slavin, Charles Newman, Harry Garrison and two others, whose names were not learned, slightly hurt. Clowry and May cannot possibly live and the recovery of Newman is very doubtful.

LOTTERY IN CANADA.

The Postmaster General Hears from the Canadian Authorities.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—Postmaster General Wanamaker has written a letter to Postmaster General Taggart, of Canada, informing him that the Louisiana Lottery company has established an agency at Toronto and is flooding the United States mails with its circulars in sealed envelopes from that point.

The act of mailing, constituting the offense, does not occur within the jurisdiction of the United States, hence the penal cause does not apply. In his letter to Mr. Wanamaker, he says: "Lottery tickets and lottery circulars have been held by the secretary of the treasury to be liable to customs duties. This ruling is not inconsistent with treaty stipulations, for Article II of the Universal Postal Union, forbids the mailing of any article from one administration of the union to another, which under the laws of the country of destination is liable to customs duties. Postmasters at our exchange offices are instructed to stamp all matter which they suspect to contain dutiable matter, supposed liable to customs duty. At the office of destination they are opened by the addresses in the presence of a customs officer, or his representative, and if found to contain lottery matter, are forfeited under the provisions of treasury regulations."

Mr. Wanamaker requests the postmaster general to instruct the postmaster at Toronto to stamp all letters mailed there by J. C. McCullough, the agent of the lottery company.

EVANGELICAL CONFERENCE.

Officers Elected and Other Work Done at the Indianapolis Meeting.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 15.—Yesterday's sessions of the German Evangelical conference were devoted to the election of officers. Rev. Gottlieb Heinmiller, of Germany, was elected editor of The Christliche Botschafter; Rev. S. P. Sprang was re-elected editor of The Evangelical Messenger; Rev. Jacob Young, editor of The Evangelical Magazine; Rev. C. A. Thomas, editor of the German Sunday School Literature, and Rev. J. C. Hornberger, editor of the Living Epistle and the English Sunday School Literature.

Rev. W. H. Knicks was elected corresponding secretary of the Missionary society, and Rev. William Yost, treasurer. Rev. C. K. Fehr was re-elected to the superintendency of the orphan home at Flat Rock, O. Members of the board of publication were chosen as follows: Dr. Saylor, of Pennsylvania; Henry Guelich, of New York; C. F. Zimmermann, of Wisconsin; M. W. Pfizinger, of New York; C. C. Pfund, of Iowa; H. E. Linse, of Minnesota; J. Wierth, of Kansas, and J. Stahl, of Ohio.

Will Have Good Streets After a While. ST. LOUIS, Oct. 15.—The city of St. Louis has finally decided to establish twenty-three miles of boulevards, from 100 to 200 feet wide, ornamented on the Parisian plan. Necessary state legislation was obtained last spring, and arrangements have now been made for raising the money. The cost is estimated from $5,000,000 to $10,000,000.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 15.—The well known railroad arbitrator, Mr. J. S. Leeds has accepted the position of head of the new traffic association being formed by California merchants. He will also act as mediator between the railroads and merchants and will receive a salary of $10,000 a year.

TO DAM NIAGARA.

Captain Dunham's Plan to Deepen the Water in the Lakes.

CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—To dam Niagara has long been considered one of the things which human skill could not accomplish. Yet such is the means which Captain J. S. Dunham, a well known vessel man, would employ to procure deeper waterways on the great lakes.

For several years the level of the water in the lakes has been steadily falling, and it is now fully two feet lower than it was eight or nine years ago. The water in Chicago river is down to city datum, or the low-water record. This steady fall in water has constantly tended to lessen the cargoes of the lake boats, and they are now 5 to 10 per cent. less than they were half a dozen years ago.

Captain Dunham believes the lakes could be treated as great millponds, and the lessening of the capacity of the outlet would result in backing up the water which would otherwise go over the falls. His plan is a very simple one. In Niagara river below Tonawanda, where navigation ends, he would dump many thousand boatloads of large stones. It might be that some steel structure could also be extended into the river from each side to narrow the channel.

The result would be to lessen the outflow of water from the lakes and thereby increase the stage of water at all points. The proposed dam would be comparatively inexpensive. "The question is largely an engineering one," Captain Dunham said yesterday, "and I would like to hear what the United States engineers think about it. So far as I can now see, there is nothing in the way of its being impracticable."

FORT RECOVERY CENTENNIAL.

An Interesting Celebration of St. Clair's Battle with the Indians.

FORT RECOVERY, O., Oct. 15.—Yesterday was the opening day of the centennial celebration. A great crowd was in town and a successful termination of the arduous work of the committee is promised. Yesterday records the one hundredth anniversary of General Arthur St. Clair's memorable battle with the Indians on the site of this little city Nov. 4, 1791.

A movement will be initiated that shall in the end, by an appropriate monument, suitably mark the spot and record the fact of this event, and perpetuate the memory of those who gave their lives here to their country.

The exercises were held in Krenning's Grove. Program:

Thursday, Oct. 15, 10 a. m.—Music; addresses by Hon. John Sherman, A. A. Graham, Esq., of Columbus; C. S. Blackburn, Esq., of Cincinnati, and others; music. Afternoon, 2 o'clock—Music; address, General William Gibson, of Tiffin, "The Conquest of the Continent and St. Clair's Defeat"; music; addresses by Hon. T. J. Godfrey, of Colima; Hon. M. D. Shaw, of Wapakoneta, and others; music.

Friday, Oct. 16, 10 a. m.—The forenoon exercises will consist of the removal of the remains of soldiers from the old cemetery to the new plot of ground procured for that purpose, and dedication of the plot; afternoon, 2 o'clock, music; address, Judge Samuel F. Hunt, of Cincinnati; address, Colonel Bundy, of Cincinnati, and others; music. Each morning at sunrise a salute of thirteen guns will be fired.

FIXING THE RESPONSIBILITY.

Four Prominent People Arrested for Burning a Court House.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 15.—The most intense excitement prevails in Washington, Daviess county, over the arrest of County Auditor Lavelle, Basil Ledgerwood and John Harbine, on a charge of setting fire to the court house last week and destroying the records. A man named Hawes was also arrested, and efforts are being made to arrest Michael Lavelle, a brother of the auditor.

Ledgerwood and Harbine have confessed that they fired the building at the instance of Lavelle, who gave Ledgerwood a house and lot and Harbine $1,000 cash. The four men were taken before Judge Heffron. Lavelle and Hawes were held in $5,000 bail each and Ledgerwood and Harbine pleaded guilty to the charge of arson. Sentence was suspended, as they will be used as witnesses.

Not a Rain Producer.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., Oct. 15.—No rain has fallen in this vicinity since Sept. 5, and if the concussion-rain theory has not been exploded here it is no fault of the government. Since August about thirty thousand pounds of melinite, which is more powerful than dynamite, have been exploded at the falls. The shocks of the explosion, morning, noon and evening, are felt and plainly heard as far as Bethlehem, twenty-five miles up the river; Bridgeport, fourteen miles inland in the hills, and for miles below New Albany. If concussion produced rain, Jeffersonville ought to be deluged, yet this is the severest drouth experienced in this section for years.

Blockade to Be Raised.

DULUTH, Oct. 15.—A special to The Herald from Sault Ste Marie says the blockade at the Soo will be raised not later than Thursday night. There are now fifty-five downbound vessels waiting to pass down, and as many more waiting to pass up. Unless stringent regulations are adopted after an opening is effected, great damage may be done to vessels in their mad hurry to get through. The total vessel valuation of the ships now at the Soo is estimated at $14,000,000, and the cargo valuation at $2,000,000.

A Little Girl Burnt to Death.

CANTON, O., Oct. 15.—Ellen, the eight-year-old daughter of Edward Walker, of Navarre, while standing near the stove, had her clothing ignited and she was burnt to death. Every particle of her clothing was burned off.

PLOT REVEALED.

Sensational Developments at Washington, Indiana.

FOUR MEN ARE UNDER ARREST.

One of the Number Breaks Down and Makes a Confession Implicating Three Others, Among Them Being the County Auditor—The Guilty Parties Languish in Jail.

WASHINGTON, Ind., Oct. 15.—This city is undergoing the most exciting and sensational scenes in its history. Detectives have been at work for a week on the court house fire, and up to this hour have arrested four persons supposed to be implicated in the incendiarism. Samuel Harbine, a day laborer, living in this city, was arrested Tuesday night, charged with complicity in the burning of the records. After being arrested he confessed the crime, and implicated several prominent people therein.

As a result County Auditor James C. Lavelle, together with A. B. Hawes, a prominent citizen of Steele township, were arrested yesterday and were placed in jail; also a man by the name of Basil Ledgerwood. The officers are now in pursuit of Michael Lavelle, a brother of the auditor.

Harbine's story is to the effect that Lavelle employed him to burn the court house, for which he was to receive $500. Only $5 of this amount has been paid. It is also reported that Ledgerwood is anxious to turn state's evidence. He claims to have been given a house and lot for his part in the nefarious deed.

Auditor Lavelle's bondsmen, becoming frightened at the turn affairs were taking, required him to turn over all his property to them, and this was done yesterday afternoon. He has been auditor of the county nearly eight years, and the fact that the people had confidence in him makes his accusation and arrest the sensation of the hour. From certain circumstances it is supposed he is short in his accounts, but no one knows the amount. Experts are now at work on books.

Hawes lives on a farm of 500 acres owned by his wife, and is in good circumstances financially. He is a desperate character, however, and he was brought in yesterday at the muzzle of a Winchester.

The city is full of people from the country. Business is almost suspended and everybody is discussing the arrest of the conspirators.

The four parties in jail were brought before Judge Heffron yesterday. Lavelle and Hawes' bonds were placed at $5,000 each, and Harbine and Ledgerwood's at $2,000 each. So far none of them have given bond, and they have been returned to jail.

The burning of the court house was attempted one week ago, and a systematic effort was made to destroy the records in the recorder's and auditor's departments, coal oil being used to accelerate the fire. The destruction of the records affected the titles of nearly every landowner in Daviess county, and from the start the greatest indignation was manifested toward the perpetrators of this dastardly crime. Threats of mob violence are freely made.

WATERWAY CONVENTION.

An Important Meeting Being Held in Evansville, Indiana.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 15.—The Great Western Waterway convention opened here yesterday and the city is crowded with delegates, officially appointed by the governors of nearly every state in the union. There is, in addition, a large representation of commercial, trade, manufacturing, mechanical, laboring, agricultural, river and vessel organizations of the states of Missouri, Ohio and Mississippi valley.

The convention is held under the auspices of the executive committee on the improvement of western waterways by the authority vested in it by the convention held in Cincinnati September, 1889. The convention will be in session two days. The delegates from Louisiana and other points will join in a memorial to congress, which they will press and urge before that body, asking it to materially modify and change the laws relative to the Mississippi river commission, and to remove it from New York, where it now is, to St. Louis, Memphis or New Orleans, on the grounds that they ought to be located in the Mississippi valley; also, to place district officers and several experienced river men on the committee; to enlarge its functions and jurisdiction so as to give control over the tributaries as well as over the Mississippi itself, and to increase its power and authorize it to instruct the district officers to do certain work, instead of merely addressing and recommending it, and to do away with some of the red-tape methods which have delayed or interfered with river work.

Many Injured in an Explosion.

TIPTON, Ind., Oct. 15.—The large heading factory of A. R. Coleman was completely demolished Tuesday evening by the explosion of a large boiler. A number of boys and men were seriously and several, it is believed, fatally injured. The plant was valued at $15,000, and is almost a total wreck.

Murdered His Young Wife.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 15.—Laura Gilardi, aged eighteen, was shot and killed in Patterson park Tuesday night by her husband, Sisto Gilardi. Gilardi also shot himself, but the wounds are not serious. He refuses to give a reason for his crime.

Killed by an Officer.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Oct. 15.—John Shea, of Chicopee Falls, who was recently shot by Marshal Slate, died from the effects of his wound Tuesday night. Slate is under arrest.

RAILROAD WRECK.

Four People Killed and Three Others Fatally Injured.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Oct. 15.—The Baltimore and Ohio fast mail No. 8, from Chicago to New York, jumped the track at Hicksville, O., at 4 p. m., yesterday, killing four passengers, wounding three others fatally and a dozen others less seriously. The wreck occurred on a sharp curve, the express, mail, baggage and smoking cars passing the curve safely, but the sleepers jumped the track and were piled up in a mass of ruins.

The killed are supposed to be a man from Montpelier, O., two children from Chicago and a lady from some eastern city. The track is blockaded and trains are running around via the Washab line. It is now definitely known that two persons were killed, three were seriously injured and several others were slightly hurt. The killed are: Thomas Waterstone, of Bridgewater, O., and A. G. Mathers, of Doon, Iowa.

The seriously injured are: J. W. Graubaugh and wife, of Mansfield, O., and Mrs. Sarah Snyder, of Porter, O. Mrs. Thomas Waterstone, of Bridgewater, and Miss Rhoda Woodall, of Buffalo, were also hurt.

It was the private car of Vice President King that was attached to the wrecked train and not that of Emmons Blaine.

Not as Bad as Reported.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Oct. 15.—A later report by telephone from Auburn says that a traveling man who drove from Hicksville after the wreck said Emmons Blaine was shaken up, but not hurt. The latest advices say but two persons were killed, but swells the number of injured to fifty, ten, at least, of whom will die.

When the express was at a point not far from the station where it is now scheduled to stop, in rounding a sharp curve on an embankment twenty feet high, the four rear cars, two sleepers, a passenger coach and Vice President King's private car left the track and rolled down the embankment, turning over twice in their descent to the bottom. The train was running at a speed of fifty miles an hour and the crash was awful. In a moment the air was hideous with the groans and shrieks of the injured and imprisoned passengers. Assistance came from the town almost immediately and the work of rescue was begun. All the physicians and surgeons of the neighborhood were summoned. The bodies of two men were taken out shortly thereafter. They are supposed to be relatives named Mattheus, one of Chicago Junction, O., and the other of Montpelier, O.

All the hotels and public buildings of the little town were thrown open and turned into hospitals, the wounded being removed as rapidly as possible. No names can be learned at this writing, but it is known that Vice President King, of the Baltimore and Ohio company, is badly injured. The Baltimore and Ohio officials and employees will not talk, and as that company owns the only telegraph lines out of the town, no information can be sent out to the surrounding country and newspaper men are sending their matter from Defiance, eighteen miles distant. It is probable that no later information will be had soon, as trains are badly blocked and there is no means of reaching the scene of the accident.

A CONVICT'S CRIME.

A Young Lady's Ears Cut Off By a Friend in Human Form.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Oct. 15.—Fred Kempton, a convict, recently sent up for eighteen months from Lexington county, for assault and battery with intent to kill, made his escape from the state penitentiary about a week ago and disappeared entirely. Yesterday a reputable citizen of Lexington, who was in this city, told a most astonishing tale of his movements since.

He says Kempton went back into Lexington county, about twenty-five miles from Columbia, and whether by chance or otherwise, met his former victim and offered her the choice of either having her throat cut or to have her ears cut off. She not being able to help herself, chose the latter, whereupon the hardened scoundrel dexterously severed both ears. He also cut out a section of her clothing, wrapped the dissected members in it and left her, after making blood-thirsty threats against the persons and their property, who had been instrumental in effecting his arrest and conviction.

Not Dead but Sleeping.

JERSEY CITY, Oct. 15.—A colored man named Beverly Brown, who has been confined in the Hudson county jail awaiting examination as to his sanity, was taken suddenly ill on Tuesday evening. Yesterday morning he was found in his cell motionless and apparently inanimate. After a hasty examination the county physician pronounced the man dead. The body was removed to the morgue, and was being prepared for the coffin when signs of life were detected by the morgue keeper. A physician was called, who pronounced the man alive and ordered his removal to a hospital. Up to the present time Brown had not recovered consciousness, although undoubtedly alive.

Shipwrecked Sailors.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 15.—The survivors of the ill-fated United States ship Despatch, numbering sixty-nine officers and men, arrived in this city last night under command of Lieutenant Noel and Chief Engineer Ogden. The party left Chinoteague at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, leaving at the scene of the wreck Lieutenant Cowles, commanding; Lieutenant Mulligan, Paymaster Heath and a cook and steward. When the train reached Wilmington, Surgeon Gatewood got off with a sailor who was suffering with a broken leg, the injury being received shortly after leaving New York by being hit with a crank pin of the engine. The sailor will be taken to Washington and placed in the naval hospital.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.

ROSSER & McCARTHY,
Proprietors.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1891.

Governor Campbell's Chance.

"Governor Campbell is making a magnificent fight," observes the New York World. "Whether he shall be re-elected or not, he has shown himself to be the most courageous Democratic leader and the best stump-speaker in the West."

"Speaking at the centre of the glass and pottery industries, and again in the mining and iron region, to great crowds of so-called 'protected' workmen, Governor Campbell asked them to their faces how many had received an increase of wages since the increase of from 25 to 50 per cent. in the tariff on the products of their labor."

"The answer in each case was: 'Nary one!'"

"Governor Campbell boldly challenged Major McKinley to name a single protected industry in the State of Ohio wherein the wages have been increased by the operation of his tariff law. The Governor made the fair proposition to his opponent to give him the votes of all the men whose wages have been increased the bill if he will give me the votes of the men whose wages haven't been increased by it, and 'on that basis,' he declared, 'I'll carry Ohio by 750,000 majority.'"

"The tariff was raised on the pretense of paying higher wages to American workmen. It has proved a fraud. Monopoly takes all the increased profits, and labor can bite its thumb."

THE PAROLE SYSTEM.

Convicts Will Not Get Its Benefits Under Governor Brown.

A special from Frankfort says: "Governor Brown's views on the constitutionality of the parole law have been concurred in by a number of lawyers, and also by ex-Governor Knott."

"Just what steps will be taken to test the matter in the court can not now be learned; but it is perhaps safe to say that no paroles to prisoners in the penitentiary will be granted by the Sinking Fund Commissioners during the administration of Governor Brown. The act is known as the 'Dickerson Parole bill,' and was introduced by Congressman W. W. Dickerson, then a State Senator, and approved by Governor Buckner in May, 1888. It was first put into operation by the Sinking Fund Commissioners in October, 1888, since which time about 125 prisoners—many for murder, on life sentences, and many more for manslaughter, on long terms—have been set at liberty under the provisions of the bill."

"Governor Brown, when questioned as to what course he meant to pursue in the matter, said: 'I can't say that I have thought of any course. I take it for granted that eventually the question will come up, in some shape or other, for adjudication. I would be glad to share with the Parole Board the responsibility of releasing prisoners from the penitentiary, for it is a great responsibility resting on the Governor; but what I am would like to do jointly and what I am required to do singly are quite different matters in law. I think it is very clear that both the old and the new Constitutions meant to give the power of setting prisoners at liberty solely to the Governor.'"

Fuel Gas.

"The troubles in the natural gas districts are likely to stimulate inventive genius and results in a manufactured gas as cheap and serviceable as that obtained from the wells." Says the Cincinnati Post: "For some time past experiments have been going on in search of a substitute, some of which have met with success. One process is a combination of coal gas and petroleum; the latter being used to enrich the product for illuminating purposes. It is claimed for this gas that under the most favorable conditions it can be made for 5 cents a thousand cubic feet."

"An expert reports that at Bellefontaine, Pa., one of the new gas machines made 234,050 cubic feet in twelve hours by the use of 395 gallons of oil at 24 cents per gallon, 2,404 pounds of slack at $1.50 per ton, 1,054 pounds of coke at $2.25 per ton, 50 cents worth of steam and 25 cents worth of water, with $3.25 worth of labor. The quality of this gas, according to Prof. Love, an analytical chemist of New York, is equal to that from the best wells, which sells at from 50 cents to $1.25, according to the distance it is piped. If the process above mentioned proves to be all that is claimed for it, a new era in gas is at hand."

If the Post will send up its scientific reporter it will find here in Mayville a process of making fuel gas that discounts the process at Bellefontaine. Gas is made by the Harris process at 5 cents per 1,000 feet.

Mr. Hermann Lange, the jeweler of Cincinnati, is in town to-day, shaking hands with his many friends.

Railway News.

The wheat movement in the Northwest has reached prodigious proportions and still continues. In one week Duluth and Minneapolis together received 3,000,000 bushels, and at Duluth alone 3,726 carloads were inspected in the week, the receipts there being 2,298,093 bushels.

Twenty-nine locomotives are now being built for the Chesapeake and Ohio, and will be delivered before the end of the year. Nineteen are building at the Schenectady and ten at the Richmond Locomotive Works. The greater number of them are ten-wheelers, and several are consolidated engines.

There are about 30,000 locomotives in the United States, of which one-half are used in hauling freight trains. It is estimated that these iron-horses cost $450,000. There are 1,000,000 cars of all kinds, of which 26,000 are passenger cars and the remainder freight or service cars. The former cars cost about $250,000,000 and the latter $800,000,000; or an approximate cost of rolling stock of $1,500,000,000.

Circuit Court Notes.

The trial of James Downey for killing "Eper" Lewis was set for trial Thursday the eight day of the term.

W. H. Ginn, Jr., was convicted of carrying concealed a deadly weapon. Verdict $25 fine and ten days imprisonment.

Thomas O'Reagan was tried on charge of shooting at Thornton Cox with intent to kill. The jury found him guilty and fixed his punishment at a fine $400.

George Low was acquitted of the charge of selling liquor to a minor.

Court adjourned last evening until Friday.

County Court.

Powell B. Owens, John M. Ball and Leon Patterson were appointed a committee to examine a mile of the Germantown and Lowell turnpike, reported completed.

I. N. Foster and Wm. Scott & Co. were granted license to retail spirituous, vinous and malt liquors.

Rev. T. B. Stratton has been returned to this charge for another year to the satisfaction of the entire community in general and the M. E. Church in particular.

Bert Grigby secured a fine fox bound puppy while at the Germantown fair. Bert has served notice on fox hunters to look out as he intends to clean out all comers.

H. K. Parker has purchased a new engine for his mill and is turning out not only a superior quality of corn meal, but is building some fine granaries, stair patterns, etc. &c.

Protracted meeting which was interrupted by Rev. Stratton attending conference at Newport, recently, again opened on Monday evening last with Rev. T. B. Stratton in charge.

Miss Eliza Barkley and niece, Miss Anna, of this place, Messrs. Monroe and Joseph Walker, and families and Edward Thompson of near Forman's Springs, Wm. H. Means, and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Newell, of Maysville were the guests of Mrs. Rebecca Means Saturday.

The Grand Lodge Elects Officers for the Ensuing Year.

Annual Session of the Grand Encampment of the State.

The principal business transacted by the Grand Lodge of Oddfellows yesterday morning was the election of officers for the ensuing year. Following was the result:

Grand Master—W. G. Simpson, of New Liberty.

Deputy Grand Master—B. B. Wilson, of Lexington.

Grand Secretary—William White, of Louisville.

Grand Treasurer—George W. Morris, of Louisville.

Grand Warden—William Remington, of Paris.

Grand Representative—J. Frank Grant, of Petersburg.

The following nominations were made for next year:

For Grand Master—Wm. McCready, of Louisville; B. B. Wilson, of Lexington.

For Deputy Grand Master—Thomas Thatcher, of Somerset; Wm. Remington, of Paris; S. X. Hall, of Louisville; George Zeller, of Henderson.

For Grand Warden—Wm. T. Nicholson, of Fulton; A. C. Sine, of Stanford; F. G. Brodie, of Louisville; C. R. Tudor, of Richmond.

For Grand Secretary—Wm. White, of Louisville; C. H. Hull, of Independence; C. A. Nelson, of Frankfort.

For Grand Treasurer—Geo. W. Morris, of Louisville.

For Grand Representative—R. G. Elliott, of Lexington.

Grand Secretary White has held the position over twenty years, and this will make the thirty-fourth or thirty-fifth year Mr. Morris has held the position of Grand Treasurer. He has declined the nomination for re-election several times, but the Lodge has insisted upon his accepting the office.

The Committee on Demises reported resolutions paying a fitting tribute to Past Grand Patriarch W. B. Rogers and Judge James C. Hemingway, of Louisville, and Past Grand James M. Sandifer, of Somerset, who had been called to the Grand Lodge above since last session.

At noon, the lodge adjourned until 7:30 in the evening.

The session last night was taken up principally by the transaction of routine business. Resolutions were offered looking to the establishment of a widows' and orphans' home. This goes over till the next annual meeting.

The lodge re-assembled this morning. The recommendation of the Grand Master and the Committee on Finance that the revenue of the Grand Lodge be raised hereafter by a per capita tax of 40 cents instead of by the percentage in vogue was called up. It brought out a spirited discussion. DeKalb Lodge, of this city, is the only one in the State that had passed upon it before the Grand Lodge convened. It did not favor the change. The matter was continued until this afternoon for final action.

The new officers will be installed this afternoon.

A description of the parade will be given to-morrow. The weather is all that could be desired, and the "little village" will witness a big procession.

About 150 of the visitors were entertained in grand style by the Knights of Pythias last night at Castle Hall. Speeches were made by General P. W. Hardin, Judge Cole, Mr. Smith, of Louisville, and others. Refreshments were served during the evening, and the visitors were delighted by the reception tendered them by the K. of P's.

THE RECEPTION TO-NIGHT.

The Grand Lodge officers and representatives will be tendered a reception to-night at Oddfellows' Hall by DeKalb and Ringgold lodges. All Oddfellows and their wives and children are cordially invited to attend. Refreshments will be served.

ANNUAL SESSION OF THE GRAND ENCAMPMENT.

The annual session of the Grand Encampment of the State was held yesterday afternoon, with Grand Patriarch H. R. Mitchell, of Louisville, in the chair. The reports show that two encampments were instituted the past year, the net increase in membership being 76. There are thirty-four encampments in Kentucky, with a membership of 1,700.

The Grand Patriarch recommended that the revenue for the Grand Encampment be raised in future by a per capita tax instead of by the per centage system in vogue. He recommended that the per capita be placed at 30 cents.

Past Grand Representatives W. W. Morris and A. J. Reed, assisted by Past Grand Patriarchs R. G. Elliott, J. Frank Grant and Thomas A. Davis conferred the Grand Encampment degree on 43 candidates.

The new constitution proposed at the last session was defeated after a spirited discussion.

The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows:

Grand Patriarch—James T. Wells, of Williams-town.

Grand High Priest—William Ryan, of Ludlow.

Grand Senior Warden—W. E. Hecker, of Louisville.

Grand Junior Warden—J. P. Gray, of Somerset.

Grand Scribe—William White, of Louisville.

Grand Treasurer—George W. Morris, of Louisville.

Grand Representative—A. J. Reed, of Louisville.

The new officers were afterwards installed by Past Grand Sire M. J. Durham, of Danville, assisted by Past Grand Sire John C. Underwood, now of Columbus, O. The encampment then adjourned.

Don't fail to see Hopper & Murphy's display of fine gold watches, also the largest line of fine diamonds carried in the city. Prices guaranteed to be the lowest. Their line of onyx clocks is the largest, and prices the lowest. Jewelry—the finest line made can be found in their stock. dtf

The citizens of Montgomery County this week voted in favor of subscribing $100,000 to aid the Kentucky Midland in extending its road to Mt. Sterling. As the action violates a provision of the new Constitution, Judge Lindsay, President of the Midland, will make it a test case for judicial decision.

GOVERNOR BROWN has appointed delegates to the National Farmers' Congress of the United States, which convenes at Sedalia, Mo., on November 10, as follows: For State at Large—E. W. Bedinger, Jefferson County; W. S. E. Bell, Fleming County. Ninth district—John Hammons, Lewis County; W. W. Baldwin, Mason County.

H. B. Bryson is said to have a "cinch" on the position of postmaster at Carlisle. The commission of Metcalfe, present incumbent, will soon expire, and there is a hot fight among the Republicans for the plum. Mr. Bryson is endorsed by nearly all the leading Republicans in Kentucky, including, it is said, Colonel W. O. Bradley and United States District Attorney Jolly. He is well known in Maysville, having had his headquarters here most of the time since his appointment to a position under Collector McDowell.

The thirty-fifth annual session of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky Independent Order of Good Templars was held at Louisville this week. The Grand Chief Templar's report shows there are in the State fully 10,000 members. A large increase in the membership has taken place since the last meeting of the Grand Lodge, and the future of the order, the report said, looked very bright. The finances of the order were in a fairly good condition. Over $6,000 had been expended in the work of extension, and the debt had been almost entirely paid off.

Here and There.

POWER & REYNOLDS.

A FACT!

We made the following proposition to a man who was about to visit Cincinnati and Louisville: If Webster's International Dictionary, with Noyes' No. 19 Stand could be bought for less than we could sell them to him, in either of the above cities, we would sell him one for one dollar less than their (Cincinnati and Louisville) price. He came back and bought our Dictionary and Stand for $13.50, and said it was one dollar and twenty-five cents cheaper than the best house in the other cities would sell it to him for. TEACHERS, can you do without one? PARENTS, it is brain food for your children. Keep one where they can partake thereof at any time. PROFESSIONAL PEOPLE, you know its value; now get one while we are making a run on them.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

Dispatches Received from the National Capital.

OUR RELATION WITH CHINA.

A Rumor That Foreign Ministers Have Broken Off Negotiations with That Government—The Recent Outrages Against Foreigners Said to Be the Cause.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—Acting Secretary Wharton, of the state department, said yesterday that the Shanghai dispatch announcing that "foreign ministers have broken off negotiations with the government of China, does not, so far as he is advised, include the United States minister to China. He is certain, he said, that the United States minister, would have communicated with the state department before taking such a serious step as the official severance of diplomatic relations with a friendly power.

The fact that the department has not heard from the United States minister to China, on the subject, is conclusive evidence to his mind, he said, that whatever other foreign ministers to China may have done, our minister has not acted in concert with them.

While the dispatch does not state the cause for severing relations with the government of China, it is assumed it arises out of the recent outrages perpetrated on missionaries.

Wreck of the Despatch.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—Acting Secretary Ramsay, of the navy department, received a dispatch yesterday from Lieutenant Cowles, of the wrecked steamer Despatch, stating that the weather is clearing. Lieutenant Cowles has sent most of his crew to Philadelphia retaining a few to look after the clothing of the sailors, much of which was saved, and to search the beach for what wreckage may come ashore. The Yantic, which was at Assateague, arrived at Norfolk, Va., this morning, indicating by her departure from the scene of the wreck that the Despatch is a total loss. No news has been received at the navy department from the Atlanta, and it is thought that the first information concerning her will come when she puts into some adjacent port.

Shameful Neglect of San Diego Harbor.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—General A. McD. McCook, commanding the department of Arizona, in his annual report to the war department speaks of the growth and progress of southern California and the commercial importance of the port of San Diego, which will become immeasurably greater when the Nicaragua canal shall be finished. He says that the defenseless condition of the magnificent harbor at San Diego is a disgrace to the country. He recommends that a military post be established at the front of the harbor. He also recommends that batteries for the defense of the harbor be stationed respectively at Point Loma, Ballast Point, North Island and on the Sand Spit.

Left All Hands Behind.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—A dispatch received here announces the death at Rosemont, Pa., yesterday, of Colonel Charles G. McCawley, who was recently placed on the retired list while holding the office of colonel commandant of the United States marine corps. Colonel McCawley entered the service from Louisiana in 1847, and attained the highest rank in the corps in 1876. He had an excellent war record.

STEAMER WRECKED.

An Ocean Disaster That Was Caused by a Drunken Crew.

St. Johns, N. E., Oct. 15.—A sailor named John Brennan has just arrived at Tepas, and tells the following story: He was one of a crew of forty-three of the steamer of the City of Rome, commanded by Captain John Thomas Nelly, which left Montreal on Oct. 7, for Dundee with 575 cattle and a lot of flour and maize.

The steamer, he says, was totally wrecked on Monday night at Marine cove, St. Mary's bay. The captain, crew and officers were all drunk and could not save themselves. He was thrown on the rocks, and after a terrible night's experience was rescued by a man named Lundrigan on Tuesday morning. All the others were lost. Brennan tells a pitiful tale of the struggles of the crew and of the cattle in their efforts to save themselves.

Not the City of Rome.

New York, Oct. 15.—The agent of the Anchor line in this city stated at 6 p. m. yesterday that he had advised from St. Johns to the effect that the steamship lost is not the City of Rome, but the freight steamer Citta Di Roma. The dispatch states that the captain and the first officer were drowned, but that the rest of the crew were saved. The agent wired to the agents of the company in Chicago and other cities denying the rumor that the City of Rome had foundered.

At the Maritime exchange a message from St. Johns was received stating the lost vessel was a cattle ship. The Maritime register contains a record of the Citta di Roma, freight steamship, Captain Bertolletta, 1,308 tons register, sailing from New Orleans on Sept. 28, and Norfolk on Sept. 30, for Bordeaux and Queenstown. This is probably the steamship which is lost.

Election in Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 15.—Sullivan's majority for mayor over Herod, Republican, is 2,728. Abraham, Democrat, for city clerk, has an estimated majority of 937, and Baskirk, Democrat, is elected police judge over Wright, Republican, by a majority of 1,303. The Democrats elect all six of the councilmen-at-large and nine of the fifteen ward councilmen. The Prohibitionists polled about 200 votes.

Church Damaged by Fire.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Oct. 15.—A fire this morning caused by a defective stove, damaged St. Ignatius Catholic church at Kingston to the amount of $8,000.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION.

Thousands of People Congratulate Professor Virchow in Berlin.

PROFESSOR VIRCHOW.

BERLIN, Oct. 15.—A most impressive scene was witnessed yesterday in a handsomely decorated salon on the Kaiserhof. There, seated on a raised dais and surrounded by his friends, Professor Rndolph Virchow, the famous pathologist, received the congratulations of thousands upon his seventieth birthday. There were present nearly all the prominent German men of science, together with a majority of the prominent statesmen and physicians, as well as a goodly number of scientists from foreign lands.

At noon a birthday book, compiled by a number of Virchow's former pupils, was placed on sale, and at the same time one of the finest streets of the city was rechristened Virchow strasse.

The professor's birthday was made the occasion for a demonstration, in a mild and amiable sense, upon the part of the Freisinnige party (Progressists), now known as the Independents, of which section of the German Liberals Virchow has always been a recognized parliamentary leader.

During the course of the day Herr Richter, at the head of a deputation of the Freisinnige party, presented the professor with a number of gifts. At about the same time, Mayor Forckenbeck presented the distinguished scientist with the deeds conferring upon him the freedom of the city of Berlin.

A gold memorial medalion was also presented to the professor by a committee of his medical and political colleagues, and bronze copies of it were given to every member of his family and were sent to every scientific institution in Germany with which Virchow has at any time been connected.

A MONUMENT TO RED JACKET

Unveiled on the Spot Where He Was Born in 1730.

WATERLOO, N. Y., Oct. 15.—At 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at Canoga, six miles from here, on the shore of Seneca lake, on the spot where Red Jacket, chief of the six nations of Iroquois, was born, was unveiled the granite monument to his memory erected by the Waterloo Library and Historical society. A delegation of Indians from the 3,700 Canadian survivors of the six nations arrived Tuesday evening. These include John Buck, a chief of the Onandagos, and a number of Cayuga chiefs. Delegations from other tribes arrived Wednesday morning. Hon. W. C. Bryant, of Buffalo, delivered the oration.

The design of the monument is most unique, and is said to be after ideas suggested by General Eli Parker, the famous Indian member of General Grant's staff. Red Jacket in his speeches frequently compared himself to a blasted hemlock tree.

The monument represents the trunk of such a tree from which the limbs have been lopped off. It stands on a pedestal containing inscribed tablets, and is surrounded by six huge boulders typifying the six nations.

On this spot Red Jacket was born in January, 1730, his real name being Sa-go-Ye-Wa-Tha, meaning "he keeps them awake." His Red Jacket title came from his dress. His eminence as the successor of Chief Brant in the six nations, his services to the crown in the revolution and to the United States in 1812, are all recorded in the early history of this region.

Red Jacket's remains lie in Forest Lawn cemetery, Buffalo, and within a few weeks a monument will be erected over his grave there.

RAILWAY TRAINMEN.

Several Important Steps Taken by the Convention at Galesburg, Ill.

GALESBURG, Oct. 15.—After an adjournment of two days, in order that the different committees might have a chance to make up their reports, the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen convention was again called to order at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. Under the new rules of the order the office of editor and manager of The Trainmen's Journal was done away with, and the responsibility of conducting The Journal placed upon the grand master, who will appoint an editor to conduct the affairs of the paper.

The grand secretary and treasurer will have charge of the financial interest of this institution, and he must account to the grand lodge for every cent earned and expended by the office. A grand executive board, to consist of three members, was also created. These officers will be elected at this session of the convention. Another important step taken was that of reducing the board of trustees from five to three members.

Evidence of Murder.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 15.—Another newborn babe, probably murdered, was found in this city yesterday. Samuel Marley, a laborer, employed by A. Kiefer & Company, on South Meridian street, yesterday morning before working time went across the street to rummage among the boxes along the Georgia street front of Murphy, Hibben & Company's dry goods establishment in search of some string. In one of the deep uncovered boxes he discovered a male infant. Coroner Manker was called, and is of the opinion that the babe was born the night before and was allowed to bleed to death. The child would have been a healthy one, weighing about ten pounds. It was wrapped in a piece of muslin, and about it also was a newspaper. The coroner has no clue as to the murderer.
